

CHURCH MISSION

Lost Mountain Baptist Church exists to glorify God by helping all kinds of people find and follow Jesus through gospel-centered ministry.

ABOUT THIS ROLE

The role of the student minister is to partner with parents in helping students find and follow Jesus through gospel-centered ministry. The student minister is responsible for planning, promoting, and coordinating all ministry for students in grades 6-12.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Organize and lead an effective student ministry program that combines community, worship, biblical teaching, discipleship, and outreach.
- Recruit, train, and care for student ministry volunteers.
- Plan and execute services for students that are biblically and theologically sound, culturally relevant, and high-energy.
- Organize and manage a ministry system that drives all events, activities, and teaching—maintaining alignment with the overall vision of the church.
- Encourage and facilitate student participation in the wider church life of LMBC.

STRENGTHS AND SKILLSET

- Exhibits a personal and growing relationship with Christ and a teachable spirit.
- Relatable to the unique needs of teenagers in today's culture.
- Possesses strategic planning and administrative skills.
- A self-motivated leader capable of creating and executing a long-term vision for the student ministry.
- A team player who advocates for the mission of Lost Mountain.
