

Bob Bickford (2/2/22)*

Article Byline Version

Bob Bickford is the Associate Director of Replant for the North American Mission Board, he is the founder of churchreplanters.com and served as a Replant pastor for nine years in suburban St. Louis. He is the St. Louis Metro Zone Leader for the Resound (Revitalization) Network of the Missouri Baptist Convention. He is the author of, Am I a Replanter?, Pathways to Partnership and co-hosts a weekly podcast, The Replant Bootcamp. He and his wife live in Webster Groves, MO. Follow Bob on twitter @bobick

Long Version

Sensing a call to reach his community and heart for revitalization, Bob Bickford left his staff position at a large multi-site church in the St. Louis area and became the pastor at Sherwood Baptist Church in November 2012. Through a strategic process a new church, The Groves, was birthed in January 2014. He served that congregation for nine years.

Bob is the Associate Director of Replanting with the North American Mission Board. In February of 2015, Bob launched churchreplanters.com a site dedicated to promoting Replanting of local congregations as well as focusing on encouragement, equipping and coaching for those considering or engaged in the work of Church Revitalization. He is the author of, Am I a Replanter? , Pathways to Partnership and is the co-host of The Replant Bootcamp podcast.

He and his wife Barb make their home in Webster Groves, MO. Follow Bob on twitter @bobick